

This film explains the importance of screening, early detection and treatment of cervical cancer. This film is for use in community health education.