Humanitarian Health Ethics Analysis Tool (HHEAT) worksheet A component of the HHEAT Handbook available at www.humanitarianhealthethics.net
 Identify/clarify the ethical issue: What is at stake and for whom? Ethical issue:
Values/principles/responsibilities in tension:
 2. Gather information: What do we need to know to assess the issue? Resource allocation and Clinical Features:
Participation, Perspectives and Power:
Community, Projects and Policies:
3. Review ethical issue: Does this information lead us to reformulate the issue?

 4. Explore ethics resources: What can help us make a decision? Sources of ethical guidance:
5. Evaluate options and select best option: What options are possible and which is the "best" under the circumstances?
Potential consequences Norms supporting/opposing option
Option:
Option:
Option:
Option:
6. Follow-up planning: How can we learn from this and what supports are needed?
Visit http://www.humanitarianhoalthothics.not.for.moro.information

Visit http://www.humanitarianhealthethics.net for more information.