

EBOLA

you can protect yourself, your family and your community

Know more about the disease

1. The incubation period or the time interval from infection with the virus to onset of symptoms is 2 to 21 days

2. Ebola is spread through contact with bodily fluids:

Vomit

Saliva

Blood

Faeces

Urine

3. Common symptoms are:

Headache

Sudden high fever

Extreme tiredness

Vomiting

Loss of appetite

Diarrhoea

Body pain

Suspected case:

fever

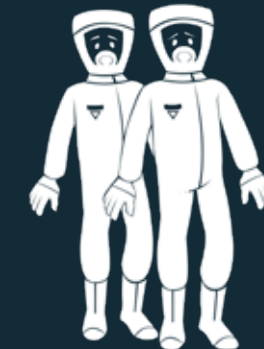

no response to treatment

bleeding

Know the travel history of any suspected case

Make sure that you have been trained on the proper use of personal protective equipment (PPE)

Properly dispose of or disinfect the PPE after use

Health care workers treating suspected cases should be wearing full PPE

Tourists and regular travellers are at higher risk only when they come into direct contact with a person who is sick with Ebola