Authorities

Which authority is responsible for what?

An authority or department is an official, governmental institution. Authorities and departments operate on behalf of the Federal Republic of Germany and its administrative policy. Their responsibilities and tasks are determined by law.

Tips:

- It is common to address strangers and especially authorities with the formal "Sie".
- Employees of authorities are not allowed to accept presents.
- Please make sure you have all important documents with you.
- Always make sure you are in time for an appointment or cancel it in advance. If you do not attend an appointment without a valid reason you might suffer bad consequences like the reduction of your money.
- Make sure you take a copy of all documents you have to hand in.
- It is important that you store all the documents you might receive from authorities for further usage, most suitable within a folder.
- You are free to enter an objection against any decision of an authority. Since there are short time
