After a Child's Immunisation

Too Hot

Give them a drink (water or breastfeed)

Loosen their clothes
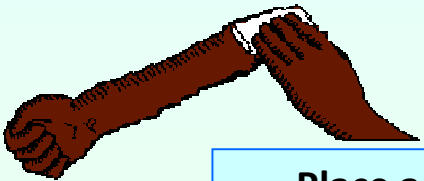

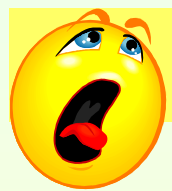

High Temperature

39°C

Red or Swollen

Red or swollen at the injection site

Place a cool wet cloth on site
Do not rub the site.

Sleepy or Not Feeding

Baby is sleepy or slow to feed
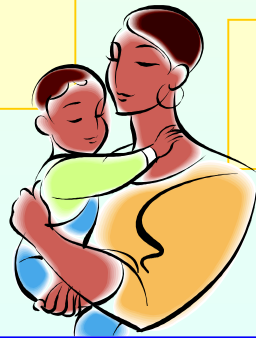

Watch them carefully

Encourage them to drink

Crying

Baby is unsettled, grumpy, crying or has a fever

Give them paracetamol as advised by the nurse

Give them plenty of hugs

Other Side Effects

Vomiting

Swollen Glands

Rash
Between 5-12 days later

Worried

Worried about your child?
Call your nurse doctor or hospital