

The Impact of El Niño on Children in Southern Africa

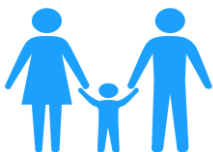

UNICEF Response & Requirements

5 August 2016

ANGOLA - LESOTHO - SWAZILAND - MALAWI - MADAGASCAR - MOZAMBIQUE - ZIMBABWE

In seven priority countries in Southern Africa

15 MILLION

PEOPLE
FOOD/NUTRITION
INSECURE

7.8 MILLION

CHILDREN
FOOD/NUTRITION
INSECURE

513,000
CHILDREN

Are suffering from Severe Acute
Malnutrition (SAM)

3.2 MILLION
CHILDREN

Have reduced access to safe drinking water as a direct result of the El Niño drought

7.5 MILLION
CHILDREN

Are expected to be affected by health related concerns in 2016/2017 directly related to the impacts of El Niño

UNICEF 2016 El Niño funding requirements by country

82% Funding Gap

Thanks to donors, in 2016, UNICEF
and partners have reached:

52,000

Children with Severe Acute Malnutrition
(SAM) treatment

608,000

People with WASH support

74,000

Children with child protection &
psychosocial services

100,000

People with HIV education & services

For more information visit: <http://www.unicef.org/appeals/el-nino-crisis.html>