

Contents

Preface	vi
Acknowledgements	vii
Abbreviations	viii
List of tables and boxes	ix
1. Introduction	1
1.1 Mental health problems in children and adolescents	1
1.2 Types of mental health problems	1
1.3 Importance of mental health problems	1
1.4 Main causes of mental health problems in childhood	2
2. Assessment and treatment: general principles	4
2.1 Assessment	4
2.2 Taking into account local culture	5
2.3 Treatment	6
3. Making a summary and action plan	9
3.1 Making a summary	9
3.2 Example of an action plan	10
4. Development and developmental problems	11
4.1 Assessment of developmental delay	11
4.2 Language delay	16
4.3 Stammering	18
4.4 Reading difficulties	20
4.5 Clumsiness	22
4.6 Autism spectrum disorder	25
5. Intellectual disability	29
5.1 Information about intellectual disability	29
5.2 Finding out more about children with intellectual disability	31
5.3 Helping children with intellectual disability	32
6. Habit disorders	34
6.1 Feeding problems	34
6.2 Obesity	37
6.3 Sleeping difficulties	40
6.4 Bed-wetting	43
6.5 Soiling	47
6.6 Tics and other jerky movements	50

 CONTENTS

7. Emotional problems	52
7.1 Introduction to anxiety problems	52
7.2 Panic attacks	54
7.3 Fears and phobias	55
7.4 Refusal to go to school	57
7.5 Separation anxiety	60
7.6 Excessive shyness	62
7.7 Depression, misery and unhappiness	64
7.8 Obsessions and compulsions	68
8. Behaviour and related problems	70
8.1 Temper tantrums and disobedience	70
8.2 Hyperactivity and attention problems (ADHD)	72
8.3 Aggressive behaviour and bullying	76
8.4 Fire-setting	78
8.5 Lying	80
8.6 Stealing	81
8.7 Truancy	84
9. Specific problems in adolescence	87
9.1 Introduction	87
9.2 Sexual development	89
9.3 Self-starvation (anorexia nervosa)	92
9.4 Self-harm	94
10. Alcohol and drug dependency	99
10.1 Alcohol problems	99
10.2 Drug problems	104
11. Psychotic disorders	107
11.1 Bipolar disorder	107
11.2 Schizophrenia	109
12. Chronic physical illness and disability	112
12.1 Physical illness and mental health	112
12.2 Physical disability	115
12.3 Hearing impairment	117
12.4 Visual impairment	119
12.5 Cerebral palsy	121
12.6 Seizures/fits (epilepsy)	123
12.7 Diabetes mellitus	127
12.8 HIV/AIDS	130
12.9 Sickle cell disease	132
12.10 Mental health aspects of life-threatening illness	133
13. Physical illness without an identifiable physical explanation	136
13.1 Assessment of physical symptoms	136
13.2 Weakness without physical cause	138
13.3 Stomach aches	140
13.4 Headaches	142
13.5 Tiredness/fatigue	145
14. Stressful situations	148
14.1 Parental marriage relationships and children	148
14.2 Grief and loss	151

CONTENTS

14.3 Physical abuse	154
14.4 Sexual abuse	159
14.5 Emotional abuse	162
14.6 Neglect	163
14.7 Children in disasters	166
14.8 Post-traumatic stress	168
15. Parents and the needs of children	171
15.1 Basic physical care	171
15.2 Secure sense of attachment	171
15.3 Love and affection	172
15.4 Age-appropriate stimulation	173
15.5 Guidance and control	173
15.6 Encouraging independence	174
15.7 Respecting the child as a person	174
15.8 Building self-esteem and confidence	174
16. Mental health promotion	176
16.1 Preventing intellectual disability	176
16.2 Working with teachers	177
16.3 Anti-bullying programmes in schools	181
16.4 Social networking	183
17. Medication	185
References and suggested reading	187
Appendix 1: My star chart	188
Appendix 2: Guide to medication for use in childhood mental disorders	189
Index	195