

Za'atari refugee camp, Jordan: Including children with disabilities

UNICEF and partners are working to make sure that the camp is accessible and that all children, including those with disabilities, are included in services and activities.