Welcome! When you join our INCLUDE learning community, you will be connecting with other CBR and development professionals who are committed to community-based development that is truly inclusive.

As an INCLUDE community member, you will be able to:

- Learn about Community-based Rehabilitation (CBR) as an inclusive development strategy to realize the rights of people with disabilities at the community level
- Discover how other programmes are putting CBR's inclusive development strategy into action
- Create your own action plan for inclusive development
- Share experiences, thoughts and ideas with a community of other dedicated individuals working in CBR
- Reflect on your own experiences and beliefs about inclusive development
