

12 populations being left behind

I am a person living with HIV.

Worldwide, 19 million of the 35 million people living with HIV today do not know that they have the virus.

I am a young woman.

76% of adolescent girls in sub-Saharan Africa do not have comprehensive and correct knowledge about HIV.

I am a prisoner.

HIV prevalence among prisoners in some settings is 50 times higher than among the general population.

I am a migrant.

Around the world, 39 countries have an HIV-related travel restriction.

I am an injecting drug user.

Only 55 of 192 countries offer a needle-syringe programme.

I am a sex worker.

HIV prevalence among sex workers is 12 times greater than among the general population.

I am a man who has sex with other men.

Same-sex sexual conduct is criminalized in 78 countries.

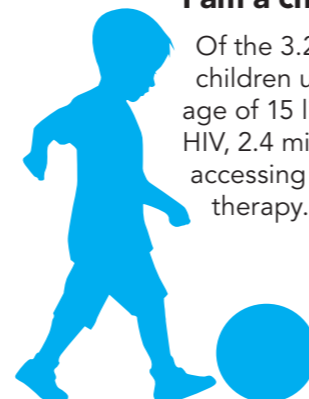

I am a transgender woman.

Transgender women are 49 times more likely to acquire HIV than all adults of reproductive age.

I am a pregnant woman.

Only 44% of pregnant women in low- and middle-income countries received HIV testing and counselling in 2013.

I am a child.

Of the 3.2 million children under the age of 15 living with HIV, 2.4 million are not accessing antiretroviral therapy.

I am a displaced person.

At the end of 2013, there were 51.2 million people forcibly displaced worldwide.

I am a person living with a disability.

23% of men with a disability do not return to seek health care because they were treated badly at a previous visit.

I am 50+.

The life expectancy of people aged 50 and older living with HIV and accessing treatment is the same as the life expectancy of others of the same age.
