

Episode #13 - COVID-19 - V

13 November 2020 | Science conversation

A YouTube video player thumbnail. The main image shows a woman with dark curly hair, wearing a light-colored blazer, smiling. Behind her is a stylized, colorful illustration of a coronavirus particle. The video title is "WHO's Science in 5 on COVID-19 - Vaccine trials - 20 ...". The WHO logo is in the top left. A "Watch later" button is in the top right. A play button is centered over the woman. The text "Welcome, Kate." is at the bottom center. A "Watch on YouTube" button is in the bottom left.

World Health Organization

WHO's Science in 5 on COVID-19 - Vaccine trials - 20 ...

World Health Organization Watch later

World Health Organization

Watch on YouTube

Welcome, Kate.

Vaccine trials

Share

Summary

Learn what scientists look for in the different phases of a clinical trial for a vaccine. What does it mean when a vaccine trial is halted due to an adverse event? WHO's Dr Kate O'Brien explains in Science in 5 this week.

---

Follow all episodes

---

COVID-19 vaccines

