

Site news

(There are no discussion topics yet in this forum)

Available courses

Advanced iHRIS Course

Advanced iHRIS course is designed to enter and update data in iHRIS. It prepares trainees to

Short iHRIS Course for Implementing Partners in Kenya

This course provides an overview of how to use "iHRIS for community health workers"

Human Resource Management

This course covers the basics of human resource management, including recruitment, training, and performance management.

course for health professionals aspiring to use Integrated Human Resource Information System (iHRIS) to update health workers data, digitize HR records and update in-service training information. This course is designed to become expert users of iHRIS provides instructions to United States Government (USG) partners/Implementing Mechanisms in Kenya to update HRH data and report on contract health workers.

human resource management in the Kenyan health care context.