Dossier: Media and Corona

This project aims to get some authentic insights on the current status quo of the situation of media in times of Corona in AREACORE partner countries – through short films and through the collection of reports and literature on the issue for the respective countries and regions to research Media and Information Literacy. Corona Crisis 2020 has certainly immediate and long term effects on our media systems, journalism practices and freedom of expression relevant for our research network.

This is a living document, so we are updating it constantly. If you have an article or publication to add, please do not hesitate to share with us so we can include it. Please contact us through the Contact Form.
