

Home / Tools and toolkits / Air Quality Standards

National air quality standards

This interactive tool provides a snapshot – in the form of a map – of current national air quality standards for classical pollutants (particulate matter, nitrogen dioxide, ozone, carbon monoxide and sulphur dioxide) for various averaging times. The WHO Air Quality Guidelines values and interim targets are provided as references. The data was compiled by the Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute and shall be updated regularly.

Access the tool

Tool feedback

To report a problem, ask a question, or share feedback,