WHO MORTALITY DATABASE

Interactive platform visualizing mortality data

The WHO Mortality Database is a compilation of mortality data by country and area, year, sex, age and cause of death, as transmitted annually by national authorities from their civil registration and vital statistics system. It comprises data since 1950 to date.

Only data with at least 65% completeness are published here