This online platform is the only single point globally to access all comprehensive information related to mental health, substance abuse, disability, general health, human rights and development. It will:

- ✓ Allow the sharing of key national resources and best practices across countries
- ✓ Bring together the key areas of mental health, substance abuse, disability, physical health and human rights to promote a holistic approach
- ✓ Reduce fragmentation and duplication of information and efforts across and within countries
- ✓ Facilitate advocacy
- ✓ Promote research

WHO MiNDbank is useful for a wide range of audiences, including:

- ✓ Mental health, disability and health policy makers and planners
- ✓ Legislators and parliamentarians
- ✓ Mental health, substance abuse, disability, health and human rights NGOs and DPOs
- ✓ International and regional human rights bodies and mechanisms, eg. Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, UN Subcommittee on the Prevention of Torture
- ✓ National bodies established under international human rights mechanisms, eg. National CRPD implementation and monitoring mechanisms, National Prevention Mechanisms
- ✓ Academic centres and researchers
- ✓ Health and mental health clinicians
